

Introduction to Dentistry

Developed by specialists | Delivered by the BDIA

Benchmark training for the UK's dental sector

The BDIA Certificate: Introduction to Dentistry is the foundation course for non-clinical teams in the dental sector. It builds the confidence and knowledge to communicate effectively with clinicians, patients and customers — all through flexible online learning and 20 hours of verifiable CPD

Who is it for

Ideal for non-clinical dental team members, this course builds practical understanding of the profession and strengthens confident communication with clinicians, patients and customers

- ✓ Sales and Marketing
- ✓ Practice Managers
- ✓ Treatment Coordinators
- ✓ Customer Service
- ✓ Receptionists
- ✓ Admin Teams

Self Guided Learning

The course consists of 11 self-guided modules, designed to be completed at your own pace, covering the foundations of dentistry, including:

- ✓ Introduction to Dentistry
- ✓ Oral & Dental Anatomy
- ✓ Oral & Dental Disease
- ✓ Oral Hygiene
- ✓ Diagnosis & Radiography
- ✓ Oral Surgery, Anaesthesia & Sedation
- ✓ Dental Technology & Laboratory Procedures
- ✓ Dental Equipment
- ✓ Infection Control Standards
- ✓ Implant Dentistry
- ✓ Restorative Dentistry

Why Introduction to Dentistry

Build a more confident, capable dental team with trusted knowledge that improves communication, strengthens performance, and speeds up onboarding.

Designed around you

Flexible, fully online learning puts dental teams in control. Interactive materials support fast, effective learning, with 24/7 online access of access to complete the course and revisit key content whenever needed.

Exclusive BDIA Partner/Members Pricing

BDIA partners and members benefit from discounted pricing

SCAN ME

Scan the QR Code
to Enrol your team
Today!

“The course has been clear, engaging, and easy to learn — it's really strengthened my knowledge and boosted my confidence when communicating with clinicians in my role”